

Relax at
Almers Hus

The Swedish Childhood Cancer Foundation welcomes you to Almers Hus. At Almers Hus you can put your everyday life aside, this is the place for rest and recreation. For a week, you spend time with your family and you will be able to meet others who have been through similar experiences.

For more than 15 years ago the Swedish Childhood Cancer Foundation saw the need for a place where families could gather strength. Since then, many families have traveled to Almers Hus in Varberg. We want to provide cancer-affected children and their families an opportunity to get away from everything, find the support of each other, socialize and get inspiration. Now is your chance to experience this.

Are you interested in going to Almers Hus, you are cordially invited to contact the booking manager. Phone numbers can be found below. The Swedish Childhood Cancer Foundation accounts for accommodation and travel to and from Varberg.
