

Program Symposium 2026

Plats: Nordic Light Hotel, Vasaplan 7, Stockholm

Coffee and fika from 8:45

09.30-09.45: Welcome + introduction

09.45-10.30: Trude Reinfjell, Norwegian university of Science and Technology, Norway

Title: Supporting childhood cancer survivors: Interventions for cognitive and psychosocial late effects.

10.30-11.15: Miriam Götte, West Germany Cancer Centre, University Hospital Essen, Germany.

Title: Exercise interventions from diagnosis to survivorship - approaches to stay active.

11.15-11.45: Klas Blomgren, Karolinska Institute, Karolinska Hospital, Sweden.

Title: Pharmacological interventions to prevent cognitive declines after radiotherapy.

11:50-12:50 Lunch

12:50-13:50: Saro Armenian, City of Hope Comprehensive Cancer Center, CA, USA.

Title: Optimizing cardiovascular health in childhood cancer patients and survivors.

13:50-14:20: Aron Onerup, Sahlgrenska University Hospital and University of Gothenburg, Sweden.

Title: Rationale for, and examples of, lifestyle interventions to prevent late effects in childhood cancer survivors.

14:20-14.45: Päivi Lähteenmäki, Turku University Hospital, Finland and Karolinska Institute, Sweden.

Title: Introduction to a Swedish project BarncancerBaSe - a national resource for researchers interested in studying late-effects of childhood cancer,

and

Anna Sällfors Holmqvist, Skåne University Hospital, Lund University, Sweden.

Title: The SCARLET study, an example of how to use the registry resources.

14.45-15.15: Fika

15.15-16:00: Matthew C. Hocking, Perelman School of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania, USA.

Title: Identifying intervention targets to improve social connectedness in brain tumor survivors.

16:00-16.30: Discussion + closing remarks